QPATHFORMER PLATFORM LICENSE 1.0

Permission is granted to any person obtaining a copy of the Q-Pathformer Platform source code to use, modify, and evaluate the software for research, educational, and internal development purposes subject to the following terms.

1. GRANT OF RIGHTS

You may:

- Use the platform for research, testing, and evaluation.
- Modify the source code for internal experimentation.
- Publish academic analysis or benchmarking results.

2. ATTRIBUTION

Any use or derivative work must include attribution to:

Q-Pathformer Platform
Copyright (c) Anthony Siljeg

3. RESTRICTIONS

You may not:

- Redistribute the platform as a commercial product.
- Sublicense the platform.
- Remove license notices or attribution.
- Present modified versions as the original Q-Pathformer platform.

Distribution of derivative builds requires written authorization from Q-Pathformer HQ.

4. ENTERPRISE AND STRATEGIC USE

Production deployment or commercial integration requires a separate Enterprise or Strategic License Agreement.

5. SAFETY AND GOVERNANCE

Users must not remove or bypass governance safeguards including audit logging, traceability controls, or policy enforcement mechanisms.

6. NO WARRANTY

The platform is provided "as is", without warranty of any kind.

7. TERMINATION

Violation of these terms terminates the license immediately.
